SKILLS

Teamwork: Having gained experience across diverse fields, I consider myself fortunate to have contributed to numerous teams, taking on various roles in each. Engaging with a spectrum of personalities, I possess the ability to discern when to step into a leadership position or provide support within the team, as required by the situation.

Leadership skills: I naturally gravitate towards leadership roles, and my background has provided me with opportunities to oversee teams at both small and large scales. Through these experiences, I have honed exceptional communication and people management skills.

The Ability to Work under Pressure: The positions I've held necessitated working in constantly evolving environments, fostering my flexibility and adaptability. Operating within such dynamic settings ingrained this behaviour in me, all the while ensuring that the ultimate task outcomes remained unaffected.

Strategy and Planning: One of my notable strengths lies in crafting and adjusting plans that are both realistic and effective in achieving desired outcomes. Drawing from my expertise in data analytics, as well as my educational background and training, I am poised to revolutionise the approach to training programs, determining the most favourable strategies for their execution.
