

JULIA ŚWIETLICKA

ABOUT ME

I am an aspiring teacher with a passion for language and education. Fluent in six languages, I bring a deep understanding of cultural diversity and linguistic nuances to my teaching. With experience in tutoring university students and instructing children, I adapt easily to different learning styles. A recent graduate in Geography & Urban Planning from Sorbonne University, I am skilled in lesson planning, classroom management, and creative problem-solving. My love for travel and language learning drives my commitment to helping students achieve their English language goals.
