
Jacqueline Atkinson

ESOL Teacher/Tutor

12 Lincoln's Field,
Epping,
Essex.
CM16 5DY

07946771154

jacquelineatkinson12@gmail.com

PROFILE

After I retired as the Managing Partner of a large inner city GP Practice, I took a CELTA course and now have 7 years experience of teaching ESOL. I have taught accredited and unaccredited courses to adults from pre entry to L2. I have experience of teaching various groups including asylum seekers and settled migrants in different venues. Ideally I would like to part time spread over 1 or 2 days a week.

EMPLOYMENT

Integration Support Services, Harlow Essex., ESOL Teacher

Sept 2017 - PRESENT

- Teaching classes of up to 12 adult students from Pre entry to Level 2
- Preparing students for Trinity Exams and marking and grading internal exams
- Teaching both accredited and unaccredited course

I have recently taught in a hotel housing single male asylum seekers

Community Action Decorum and Community Support Services Hertfordshire Community Action, Various locations - ESOL Teacher

2017-2020

Devising, planning and teaching short topic based unaccredited courses to mixed levels. Courses specifically designed for Parents and Carers of Primary School children and for people referred from the JobCentre. I also taught a General Health and Wellbeing course to women.

These courses were taught in different venues including community centres and a lunch club.

Well Street Surgery, London E9. Managing Partner

Sept 1998 - April 2016

Respl was responsible for the running of all aspects of the surgery i.e. financial, staff, training, patient services and complaints and CQC compliance.

EDUCATION

2016 CELTA Cambridge Regional College

1994 MSc Health Sciences St Georges Medical School London SW17