PROFILE

I am a dedicated and enthusiastic Foundation Phase teacher with a newly acquired 4-year degree in Foundation Phase Teaching (2023), and a deep-seated passion to inspire and educate young learners. My commitment extends beyond imparting knowledge; it encompasses fostering a love for learning and making a profound impact on students' lives. I am highly motivated, reliable, and genuinely caring, with a strong sense of professionalism and respect for all individuals.

In addition to my educational background, I bring 2 years of experience in online English language teaching to students from diverse backgrounds. I am eager to use my skills to foster the growth and development of students in an online teaching role.
