Profile

I'm a qualified EFL teacher with a love for language and a passion for helping others to grow in confidence. My journey—both personally and professionally—has shaped me into a patient, understanding, and adaptable teacher. As a mother, I know the importance of encouragement and finding creative ways to make learning engaging.

I have strong organizational and communication skills, which help me manage lessons effectively and connect with students of all ages. I believe that learning should be an enjoyable experience, and I strive to create a warm, supportive environment where students feel comfortable making mistakes and improving at their own pace.

Teaching, to me, is more than just a job—it's about making a real impact, helping students find their voice, and showing them that learning English can open doors to new opportunities. I'm always looking for ways to grow as an educator and contribute positively to any school or learning environment I become a part of.
