BIO

I am a 26 year old, native english speaking female from South Africa. I graduated from Wits University with both a Bachelor of Arts and a Bachelor of Laws. Although most of my professional experience has been within the legal field, I have over a year's experience in teaching languages. From my volunteer work during high school - teaching English in Botswana and South Africa - to tutoring French to young learners during my time as a university student, I have developed both passion and skill for language teaching.
