Interests: Since high school, I have taken on various casual music teaching roles in music theory, cello and piano, with pupils ranging from young children to high school students and adults. I am currently involved in the university music association and take part in the orchestra. I co-run my own book club which engages university students in topics such as postcolonial studies, gender studies, Marxism, history and fictional literature. I love to travel and have visited many countries in Europe, Africa and South America since leaving high school in 2016.

IT literacy: Word, Excel, Powerpoint, Adobe Photoshop

Driving Licence: Full driving licence with 7 years of driving experience.
