Profile

Im a postgraduate in International Conflict Analysis with a background in Military History. Both fields have continued to foster my interests in the ethical use of technology and its relationship with Security Studies while simultaneously encouraging a strong sense of self-reliance and pride in my work, fostered by previous employment overseas and previous time away in the wilderness.

Work experience

Oct 2022 - Present

● Recreation Assistant

Active Life Ltd, Herons Leisure Centre, Herne Bay

Similar to my previous work as a lifeguard, but on a casual contract as a means to fund my Postgraduate Studies.

Nov 2021 - Mar 2022

● Beach Lifeguard

Disney Cruise Line, Castaway Cay, Bahamas

Beach Lifeguard for Disney Cruise Line (DCL) at one of their resorts in the Bahamas. Daily duties were similar to those for Mid Devon, but with a significantly higher degree of responsibility given was a step up to working in a beach job. A typical day started at 6AM by getting the resort ready for guests prior to a ship arriving, followed by around eight hours of lifeguarding each day before closing and finishing around 6PM.

Such a role naturally involved working with the public for long shifts and required me to be highly organised as well as self-reliant. Naturally being on stand requires focus in great quantities, and I believe these qualities have carried over into both my regular and academic life.

May 2021 - Nov 2021

● Table Staff

Various, Various

Various Hospitality positions from May-November 2021 upon graduating from University. While not academic, I believe these positions were pivotal in further developing my social skills which I've carried over into my work surrounding Conflict Analysis and Sociology.

Further information can be found on my LinkedIn page.

Feb 2021 - Mar 2021

● Volunteer Assistant

NHS, College Surgery

Volunteer Assistant during the January 2021 Lockdown at a local Vaccine Centre. Duties mostly consisted of helping patients waiting for vaccines and maintaining hygiene standards during the vaccination periods. I had to leave this position in March 2021 in order to return to Campus and continue my studies.

Jun 2019 - Aug 2019

● Camp Counsellor

Peconic Dunes 4H Camp, Peconic, Long Island, NY

Two weeks of training and Eight weeks of work for Mr. Ryan Frazer at Peconic Dunes 4H Camp, New York as part of the Camp America Cultural Exchange Scheme. My days were split between supervising Children and Young Adults and working as a watersports instructor with two nights off a week and 12 hours every weekend. This was a fixed contract and was completed in August 2019.

Jan 2017 - Sep 2022

• Lifeguard

Mid Devon Leisure, Tiverton, Devon

Full-time work and zero-hours work as a pool lifeguard from 2017-2022. I initially worked part-time throughout 2017-20 in order to fund my university studies, but was laid off during the COVID-19 pandemic; eventually returning to the position full-time in March 2022 for similar reasons.

The initial training period qualified me as a first aider, including the use of a defibrillator and dealing with spinal injuries. General responsibilities varied, but my work mostly entailed working on poolside as a lifeguard in half-hour shifts before taking tasks o a taskboard and completing those as the day progressed. These frequently involved work such as general cleaning, interacting with the general public, or anything the Duty Manager required at the time.

Responsibilities would've also included providing first aid in the event of an emergency and helping coordinate what to do with the general public. While nothing serious ever happened on my shifts, constant monthly training kept me prepared and up-to-date on what to do. I gained a lot of experience in basic first aid and better knowledge of dealing with the public as well as general social interaction. I feel it has made me a lot more approachable as a person.

Left position in order to start my postgraduate degree at the University of Kent
