FRANCESCO BELLIA

PROFILE

I am a B.A. graduate in History of Art with Psychology and a qualified EFL teacher.

I truly enjoy the education sector and environment and I have always had a natural inclination for teaching. I love developing and mastering skills and helping students to do the same. Such an inclination manifested throughout my life in diverse environments and involved coordinating a group of young people within a scout group, delivering guitar lessons and especially delivering multi-subject catch-up lessons to teenagers.

In order to combine this inclination and my passion for foreign languages, I successfully completed various TEFL courses among which the 'level 5 (168 hours) TEFL Course' delivered by The TEFL Academy.
