- My role included creating a resource bank with decolonised works for lecturers teaching first year geography modules to include in their lectures.
- Time management has been essential as it was a self guided project.
- Building up my research skills.

ORGANISATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

September 2023- Present Friends of MSF Durham, Durham University

I am currently president of Friends of MSF Durham where we work closely with MSF to fundraise for different causes. We are currently working on fundraising opportunities as well as inviting speakers from MSF.

September 2023- Present Feminist Society, St. Cuthbert's Society, Durham University

Currently, I am the chair for St. Cuthbert's Society Feminist Society. Through this role I have to create topics and lead discussions within the society.

October 2020- Present Social Committee, St. Cuthbert's Society, Durham University

Working alongside other members to organise events both online and in person. I was the manager for our autumn ball, where more than 500 people attended our ball at a prestigious hotel. Thus my responsibilities have included working with suppliers and performers as well as the attendees to make events run smoothly.

October 2021- April 2022 Shakti Enactus, Durham University

I was the administrative officer for the Shakti project for Enactus Durham. The project helps burn victims in India recover safely and create a sustainable future. Through donations we help women train to sew to create sustainable sanitary products for women.

March 2021-June 2021 Learn With Us Summer Camp, Durham

Throughout my time with Learn With Us summer camp I helped create a series of geography lessons. The summer camp has several online courses for students in the North East of England.

May 2018 and May 2019 Seeds and Chips teenovator, Seeds and Chips, Milan, Italy

Speaking as a teenovator (teen innovator), before a panel, for two consecutive years at the Seeds and Chips summit in Milan with 12,600 participants. May 2018, presenting a panel on pioneering new food products. May 2019, presenting a panel on Circular agriculture.

Sept 2017- June 2020 Student Government, American School of Milan, Italy

As co-president of the organisation, my responsibilities included organising events, fundraising, and creating opportunities for students to get volunteering projects.

Sept 2016- June 2020 Model United Nations, American School of Milan, Italy

I was elected member of the secretariat and organised a local conference in November 2018 and international conference in December 2019 with 300+ participants. My responsibilities included preparing materials, training, organising, preparing for and participating in conferences.
