EXPERIENCE

From the age of 16, I have gained a vast variety of experience in various fields. Waiter, bartender, restaurant manager, online customer service agent, sales agent, and team manager are some of the roles I have fulfilled over the years.

Since 2020 I have been practicing as an Intuitive Guide/Psychic. Over the years I have aided hundreds of individuals across the globe, in gaining new perspectives, growing as individuals and becoming their most authentic selves. Both online and offline.

EMPLOYMENT

Intuitive Guide and Psychic (Self Employed)

With this I found that I perform significantly better when I am:

1. Self Directed
2. Directly Interacting with people
3. Doing something I believe in
4. Helping others grow and learn
5. Teaching something with practical and sensible value.

Doing this work for the past 4 years, has taught me just how well people respond to me in general, that I am extremely insightful and discerning, how to base my interactions around how the other individual will best be able to take in what I am conveying to them. And most importantly that I truly have a passion for teaching and conveying helpful information.

I have learned how to deal with extremely difficult situations in a kind and compassionate manner while being able to provide my clients and students with simple and easy steps they can take to bring about change in their lives, or in some instances, manage their emotions in challenging times and circumstances.

I am acutely aware of mental health matters, cultural differences and nuances and through this work
