

Anna Roberts

Mobile: 801.808.1447 • annaroberts413@gmail.com

Summary

- Strong communication and interpersonal skills and collaborates well with others
- Experienced in leading large groups of people and students, as well as organizing and carrying out activities for large groups
- Able to learn new procedures and skills quickly with a positive and friendly attitude
- Able to speak intermediate Spanish and have conversations with Spanish speakers

Education

Psychology, B.A.

April 2023

Southern Utah University, Cedar City, UT

- Major in Psychology, minor in Spanish

Experience

Paraprofessional, Salt Lake City School District, Utah

August 2023- Present

- Created lesson plans for groups of 4 or more children to help them learn how to read
- Completed extensive trainings on teaching and child psychology to help improve lessons and groups while working
- Built strong relationships with each of the 30+ children that attend reading groups every day
- Practiced quick decision making, problem solving, and conflict resolution on a daily basis

Education Intern, Intergovernmental Internship Cooperative, Zion National Park Utah May 2023 - August 2023

- Created 30 minute programs about wildlife in the park and presented information to children and families coming to Zion national park every day
- Created 45 minute programs about wildlife and park information to give to families coming in to the nature center
- Staffed Zion Nature Center, a children's museum that offers interactive exhibits and youth programming
- Conducted lawn games and storytelling for families that contained a conservation or learning component

Youth Mentor, Mountain Springs Preparatory Academy, Utah

January 2023 - April 2023

- Interacted with teens every day to help them reach their personal goals
- Made meaningful connections with every one of the 30+ teens that stayed at the facility
- Facilitated and followed through with activities every shift to help the kids bond with each other and make connections that will help them in the real-world
- Enforced institution rules and made sure that teens were not harming themselves or others